

GCD 167 – Quality Management Plan

The quality criteria are the agreed standards for the project deliverables. Documenting recovery procedures for rectifying any faults discovered in the process will assist others who are involved in the project team. The quality plan should also include who will be responsible for rectifying the fault.

Quality Management Plan
Deliverable	Agreed Standard	Recovery Procedure	Responsibility